'Time Travelers' Summer Camp

Aug. 8 - 12, 2011 • 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Travel through history during a week-long summer camp at DeBary Hall!

Each day will highlight a specific period in DeBary Hall's 140-year history, focusing on the headlines, fashions, foods and entertainment of the period.

MONDAY: Late 1800s

Learn about early Florida frontier life, wildlife survival skills, Victorian traditions, the Industrial Revolution, and technological advances at DeBary Hall.

TUESDAY: Early 1900s

Learn about early toys and games and how natural disasters, such as the 1900 Galveston hurricane and 1906 San Francisco earthquake, affect history.

WEDNESDAY: 1930s

Listen to radio shows, learn about Chicago gangsters, and see how children's lives were different and the same. Campers will play board games and sample candy bars that were produced in the '30s and are still popular.

THURSDAY: 1950s and 1960s

Develop art projects and learn about life in the '50s and '60s, when the Florida Federation of Art used DeBary Hall as its headquarters. Campers will experiment with painting and drawing styles inspired by such artists as Pablo Picasso, Frida Kahlo, Vincent van Gogh, Michelangelo and John James Audubon, whose work is on display in DeBary Hall.

FRIDAY: 1990s

Learn about the restoration of DeBary Hall in the 1990s. Archaeologists from the Florida Public Archaeology Network will teach campers basic archaeology skills.

Fee: $65 plus a one-time $25 registration fee

Registration begins March 1. Parents can visit DeBary Hall or download a registration form at debaryhall.com.
